PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 111th CONGRESS, FIRST SESSION

Vol. 155

WASHINGTON, MONDAY, MAY 18, 2009

No. 76

Senate

The Senate met at 2 p.m. and was called to order by the Honorable MARK R. WARNER, a Senator from the Commonwealth of Virginia.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Dr. Barry C. Black, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray.

Eternal Lord God, we are reminded of Your mercies that have been of old; You have been our dwelling place in all generations, before the mountains were brought forth or ever You had formed the Earth and sea. From everlasting to everlasting, You are God.

Guard and guide our Senators. Provide them with a sense of purposeful direction. Give Your enabling grace to our legislative leaders that they may unite their best efforts for the health and strength of the Nation and for peace and justice in our world. Cleanse anything in them that would block the flow of Your joy. May love for You be the motive for their work, as they strive to live worthy of Your grace.

We pray in Your sacred Name. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The Honorable MARK R. WARNER led the Pledge of Allegiance, as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

APPOINTMENT OF ACTING PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will please read a communication to the Senate from the President pro tempore (Mr. BYRD).

The legislative clerk read the following letter:

U.S. SENATE,
PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE,
Washington, DC, May 18, 2009.

To the Senate:

Under the provisions of rule I, paragraph 3, of the Standing Rules of the Senate, I hereby appoint the Honorable MARK R. WARNER, a Senator from the Commonwealth of Virginia, to perform the duties of the Chair.

ROBERT C. BYRD,
President pro tempore.

Mr. WARNER thereupon assumed the chair as Acting President pro tempore.

RECOGNITION OF THE MAJORITY LEADER

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. The majority leader is recognized.

SCHEDULE

Mr. REID. Mr. President, following remarks of the leaders, the Senate will be in a period of morning business, with Senators allowed to speak for up to 10 minutes each. There will be no rollcall votes today. The next vote will be tomorrow morning at about 10 a.m. That vote will be on the motion to invoke cloture on the substitute amendment to H.R. 627, the credit card bill.

FINAL WEEK OF APRIL/MAY WORK PERIOD

Mr. REID. Mr. President, in these past few weeks, we have seen the good that can happen when we look out for Main Street, not just Wall Street. We have accomplished a lot. This work period has been tremendously productive, but we have a lot to finish this week before we can adjourn for Memorial Day. We have to finish an important bill that puts fairness and common sense back into credit cards—those credit cards we use every day. It stops companies from taking advantage of their customers with hidden charges and misleading terms. We need to finish a bill we passed a couple weeks ago that will crack down on corporate fraud and mortgage scams. We need to finish a bill that will help millions of families keep their homes. We need to finish a bill that reins in out-of-control Government contractors who waste taxpayer money, the so-called procurement bill. We need to confirm President Obama's nominee to be Deputy Secretary of the Department of the Interior—a man who is supremely qualified and held the same position in President Clinton's Cabinet. Finally, we have to pass a supplemental appropriations bill to give our troops the tools they need to succeed as they fight in two wars. This funding will strengthen our military, rebuild our standing in the world, and reduce our key security threats.

So I hope this week we can cap off a productive and successful work period with another fruitful week, but it will take the cooperation of both Democrats and Republicans to do this. I have had a brief conversation with the floor staff, and it is something we should be able to do fairly quickly. I hope that, in fact, is the case. I look forward to visiting, sometime today, with my counterpart, the Republican leader, to see what we can do to work toward this common goal of finishing our work as quickly as we can. We all have scheduled a lot of things for the Memorial Day recess. It is one of those rare times when we can be home during the week. We look forward to that. We want to make that time as lengthy as possible, and we will do what we can on this side to see if we can move through these very important pieces of legislation.

Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. McCONNELL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. Without objection, it is so ordered.
